D. Move the Previous Minutes –

Agenda:

1. Kelly Scott (walkability program) –reviewed proposal updates and discussed other suggestions to add
 - Issues on kids bringing skateboards and scooter, no room on classrooms. To find a spot that works for everyone
 - New Hope community bike shop, community partner to City of Hamilton cycling program offers cycling education, repairs and cheap bike sales
 - Crossing guards to be requested by Principal on 2 spots (Sherman Ave & Maplewood, King & Sherman Ave) Mr K will follow up the request as Kelly couldn’t make the request. Needed school principal to sign for request directly.
 - Bump out on Beechwood to be added
 - Narrowing streets on Sherman Ave(to reduce speeding)
 - Proposed request for possibly no trucks access during pickup and drop off times. To try and get Councillor Green office to help us with this request
2. Jenny – (HWCDSB- Mental Health Program) – To partner with school re:mental health Building. To help focus on physical health as well
 - To possibly form a Mental Health Advisory Council (members are every school & parents)
 - Connecting students, family and school on mental health bulding
 - Discussed how 7Habits in school tackles all aspects of student character building and well being as a whole
